

University Hearing Panel      End of Term Report    May 2014

The hearing panel convened on 10/18/13 for a training session with Elizabeth Kennedy, outside counsel for Drake University, and Alysa Mozack, Drake University coordinator for sexual violence response. The training session was attended by Sentwali Bakari as well as faculty and student members of the hearing panel . At this meeting J. Royce Fichtner was elected as the chair of the Hearing Panel.

Since this training session, the services of the hearing panel have not been needed, so no further action has occurred.

This committee continues to stand ready to serve on an as-needed basis. Membership qualities for this committee include detail-oriented individuals who are able to discuss matters that could be very sensitive in nature. Confidentiality is also very important to this position.