4.527 Split Sabbatical Option

After three years of full-time service at the University, members of the tenure-track faculty who have successfully completed a three-year, pre-tenure review may apply for a one 91) semester (one-half year) "split sabbatical" at 70 percent salary. After seven (7) years of full-time service and upon completion of a successful tenure review, faculty who have taken the first half of a split sabbatical become eligible (~~and are expected~~) to apply for the second half of the split sabbatical.

If adopted, the new policy will become effective with the 2003-2004 academic year.
